4.0 THE BOARD

The Board will be structured to ensure that as a collective group, it has the skills, experience, knowledge, diversity, and perspective to fulfil its purpose and responsibilities.

The EastPack Constitution provides that the board comprises between six and nine Directors. The Board has determined that the current number of directors should be nine as part of a transition of independent directors. It has been determined by the shareholders that EastPack should have up to three Appointed Directors, the balance being elected Shareholder Directors.

Appointed Directors must be confirmed by the shareholders at the following Annual Meeting of the Company.

If shareholders or the Board determine that the number of directors should be reduced from the maximum of 9 to 8 the shareholders may by ordinary resolution elect that all directors must retire and seek re-election to the Board. The notice of meeting for the meeting must specify that one of the purposes for the meeting is to vote on such a resolution. If such a resolution is passed by shareholders, nominations may be received from other candidates for election as a director. The 8 directors with the highest number of votes will be elected as directors of the company.

The Board seeks to ensure that Directors are:

- a. Appropriately introduced to EastPack's Management and businesses;
- b. Acquainted with relevant industry knowledge;
- c. Informed by way of appropriate papers, policies and documents to enable them to effectively fulfil their duties and add value to EastPack;
- d. Encouraged to undertake appropriate training and education so that they may best perform their duties;
- e. Updated on relevant industry and EastPack issues, including briefings from key executives and ongoing presentations to the Board.

The Board is responsible for ensuring the composition of the Board is appropriate to the activities and ownership of the Company, including ensuring it has adequate skills, knowledge, and experience to meet its responsibilities.

Election and Tenure of Board Directors

A third of the Shareholder Directors shall by rotation, retire from office each year at the Annual Meeting. Those directors may offer themselves for re-election bearing in mind that the maximum tenure a Shareholder Director may hold office is expected to be no longer than 12 years. The maximum tenure an independent Director may hold office, is expected to be no longer than nine years.

If extenuating circumstances exist, the board may waive this guideline in respect of any Director enabling them to hold office for a tenure longer than the stipulated expected maximum length a director may hold office (e.g. to contest or take on the Chair's role, or to fill a skillset or experience gap).

The Shareholder Directors will review the performance and contributions of Appointed Directors at least annually and will consider the desirability of rotation and the fit to skill mix requirements. Appointed Directors will resign from the board if that is the collective wish of the Shareholder Directors.

The Board will be proactive in championing diversity initiatives developing pathways, training and opportunities for women and ethnic minority members of the community to realise their potential in elected and appointed governance and management positions associated with EastPack and the wider kiwifruit industry.

Director Obligations

Each director will conduct themselves in accordance with their legal duties and other obligations, which include:

- a. Directors must act honestly and in good faith in what the Director believes to be in the best interests of EastPack;
- b. Directors must carry out their duties in a lawful manner and use reasonable endeavours to ensure that EastPack carries out its business in accordance with, any applicable laws, commercial integrity, and high ethical and moral standards;
- c. Directors must avoid conflicts of interest wherever possible, and where these do arise, they must declare and manage the conflict of interest. The affected Director should excuse themselves from the discussion and should not vote on any matters in which they have an interest;
- d. Shareholder Directors must seek approval from an appointed director (currently Mark Giles), and if absent or a conflict of interest arises, to then seek approval from the Chair and notify the board before the purchasing or selling of any EastPack shares;
- e. Directors commit to the collective, group decision making processes of the Board. Discussions will be open and constructive, recognising differences of opinion can bring greater clarity and lead to better decisions;

- f. Once decisions have been made by the board, all Directors are expected to support the letter and spirit of those decisions outside the Board; and
- g. Directors will keep confidential all board information, discussions, deliberations, and decisions that are not publicly known. Directors' obligations of confidentiality continue after they have ceased to be Directors.

- i. Directors will act constructively and with good intent towards one another at all times.

Independent Advice

Any Director is entitled to obtain, at EastPack's cost, independent professional advice relating to the discharge of their responsibilities as a Director. It is expected that the Director would consult with the Chair prior to obtaining this advice to ensure independence and to avoid duplication. Any advice obtained should be made available to all Board Directors.
